

Data protection declaration Data Privacy Statement

S+B TECHNOLOGIE Schätzle GmbH

1. General

S+B TECHNOLOGIE Schätzle GmbH (hereinafter "company") appreciates your visit to our website and we thank you for your interest in our company and products. The protection of your personal data is very important to us. The provision of personal data takes place voluntarily. The company processes this data in accordance with the provisions of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the German Telemedia Law (TMG) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG).

Our website may contain links to partners and other providers. We cannot assume any liability in relation to their contents.

We wish to expressly point out that data transfer over the Internet (for example communication by email) may have security risks. It is not possible to fully protect the data against third party access.

Below, we will describe under point 4 which data is processed whilst you are visiting the website of the company.

2. Controller

The controller for the processing of your data is S+B TECHNOLOGIE Schätzle GmbH. Exceptions in this respect will be explained in this data protection declaration.

3. Copyright

The content and structure of the S+B website are protected by copyright. The duplication of information or data, in particular the use of texts, parts of text or picture material requires the prior written agreement of S+B TECHNOLOGIE Schätzle GmbH.

4. Personal data

Personal data is individual information in relation to personal or factual relationships of a defined or definable natural person. This includes information such as your IP address, your correct name, your address, your telephone number or your date of birth. Information which cannot be connected to your real identity, such as your preferred Internet site or the number of users of a site is not classed as personal data.

5. Processing of personal data

Should you visit the website of the company, we process and temporarily save various types of data. This includes the connection data of the accessing computer, the Internet sites which you select when visiting us, as well as the date and duration of the visit. In addition, we calculate the recognition data of the Internet browser used and the type of operating system, as well as the website from which you were redirected to us. Personal information such as your name, address, telephone number or email address is only recorded if you provide this information voluntarily in the course of a registration, survey or information request.

6. Targeted use and disclosure of personal data

The company uses the personal data provided by you for purposes connected to the technical administration of the website and the processing of your query, both only to the extent necessary.

7. Legal basis for the data processing

The legal basis for the processing of your personal data depends on the purpose of the data processing.

- Processing of your query
- The legal basis for the processing of personal data for the purpose stated above is Article 6 Paragraph 1 Letter b) GDPR for the processing of your query, should you have sent us an enquiry and voluntarily provided us with personal data.

- Technical administration of the website
The legal basis for the processing of personal data for the purpose stated above is Article 6 Paragraph 1 letter b) GDPR, should a contractual relationship exist with you. Should no contractual relationship exist between yourself and the company, the legal basis for the processing is Article 6 Paragraph 1 Letter f) GDPR. The transfer of personal data (for example an IP address) is necessary in order to establish the connection and to display the content of the website.

8. Disclosure of data

Your personal data will not be passed on to third parties, unless this is necessary to process your query or you have expressly agreed to such. Should we engage external service providers, these are carefully selected and obliged under Article 28 GDPR to comply with all regulations under data protection laws.

9. Use of cookies

Cookies are used on our Internet sites. Cookies are small text files which are saved on your computer when you visit our Internet site. By means of these, we can tailor our website more individually to the user. The data which uses a cookie, for example a password, is saved on your computer. Should you not wish for cookies to be used, please alter the cookie administration settings in your Internet browser.

10. Data security

Our employees and service companies engaged by us are obliged to maintain secrecy and to comply with the provisions of the applicable data protection laws. The company takes reasonable technical and organisational security measures, in order to protect your personal data against loss, alteration, destruction and access by unauthorised persons, as well as unauthorised disclosure. Our security measures are constantly improved in accordance with technical developments.

11. Duration of the saving of the data

As a rule, we save your data for as long as is necessary to process your query or as long as we have a legitimate interest in the continued saving of your data (for example in order to fulfil a contract etc). The deletion of the data takes place following the expiry of the statutory or contractual retention periods (for example retention periods under commercial law or tax laws). Data which is not subject to the retention obligation is deleted once the described purpose has been fulfilled.

12. Rights as a user

As a user of our website, you are entitled to various rights. Please use the information in the contact section in order to claim your rights. When doing so, please ensure that we can clearly identify your person.

13. Right of information, correction or erasure of data

In accordance with the GDPR, you can receive written information at any time free-of-charge following a request as to which data relating to your person (for example name, address) is saved by us. In addition, you have the right to have this data corrected or erased, should the statutory requirements be fulfilled. For example, saved data for business processes which are subject to the statutory retention obligation is excluded from the erasure claim.

14. Right to have the data processing restricted

You have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data.

15. Right of objection

You also have the right to object to the processing of the data by us at any time. We will then suspend the processing of the data, unless we can prove important defensible reasons for the continued processing which outweigh your rights in accordance with the statutory regulations.

16. Right of data portability

In addition, following a request we guarantee transferability of the personal data provided by you in an up-to-date and machine readable data format.

17. Revocation of consent

You have the right to revoke your consent to the processing of your personal data which you have issued to us for one or more specific purposes at any time with effect for the future. The lawfulness of the processing of your data until the time of revocation is not affected.

18. Automatic processing of personal data

Processing of your personal data which takes place automatically only occurs if this is necessary in order to conclude or fulfil a contract and if this has no legal or other consequences for you.

19. Complaints to supervisory authorities

In case of complaints concerning the processing of your personal data, you have the right to contact the competent supervisory authorities. For this purpose, you can contact the data protection authority which is responsible for your place of residence or your locality or the data protection authority which has jurisdiction over us.

20. Data protection officer contact details

Should you have any queries concerning the processing of your personal data or should you have any suggestions or wish to complain, you can contact our data protection officer. We would recommend that you only send confidential information by post.
